

Community at our Core

Even with the destruction of Hurricane Helene, VLPR continues to provide programming for our residents.

Since Helene, we finished football/cheer season, resumed regular youth programs, temporarily moved Senior Center activities to the main Administration office, and resumed sports tourism operations.

