

NINTH

The corporation, unless otherwise required by the terms of any contribution, shall have the power in its discretion to retain all contributions in the original form in which they may have been received, and also to buy, sell, exchange, and otherwise deal in stocks, bonds, real estate and any other forms of property at either public or private sale, without order of any court or other authority to invest and reinvest any funds belonging to the corporation at any time in such securities and property, real and personal, as the directors in their sole discretion see fit, irrespective of whether such investments may not be legal investments for trust funds under the laws of Georgia. The corporation may use any bank or trust company in the State as its fiscal agent, and delegate to such institution the custody and management, investment and reinvestment of its funds, and compensate such agent for its services.

WHEREFORE, petitioners pray that they may be incorporated under the name and style aforesaid, with all the rights, privileges, and immunities hereinabove set out, and such other rights, powers, privileges and immunities as are or may hereafter be conferred upon corporations of like character under the laws of Georgia.
